The screenshot displays the Terra Dotta University ISSS portal. The header includes the university logo, navigation links (Directory, News, Calendar, Campus Map, Contact Us, Logout), and a search bar. The main content area is titled 'F-1 Student Information' and lists various services: CPT, OPT, Dependents, Reduced Courseload, and Forms. The 'Forms' section is expanded, showing a list of forms including Address Update, Curricular Practical Training, Dependent Add, Financial Information Update, Optional Practical Training, OPT Employer Update, Program Extension, Change of Level, Change of Major, Reduced Course Load, Social Security Letter, and SEVIS Registration. A sidebar on the left contains 'ANNOUNCEMENTS' with a notice about the Spring CPT deadline. The footer lists various ISSS services and the Terra Dotta logo.

Record in TDS

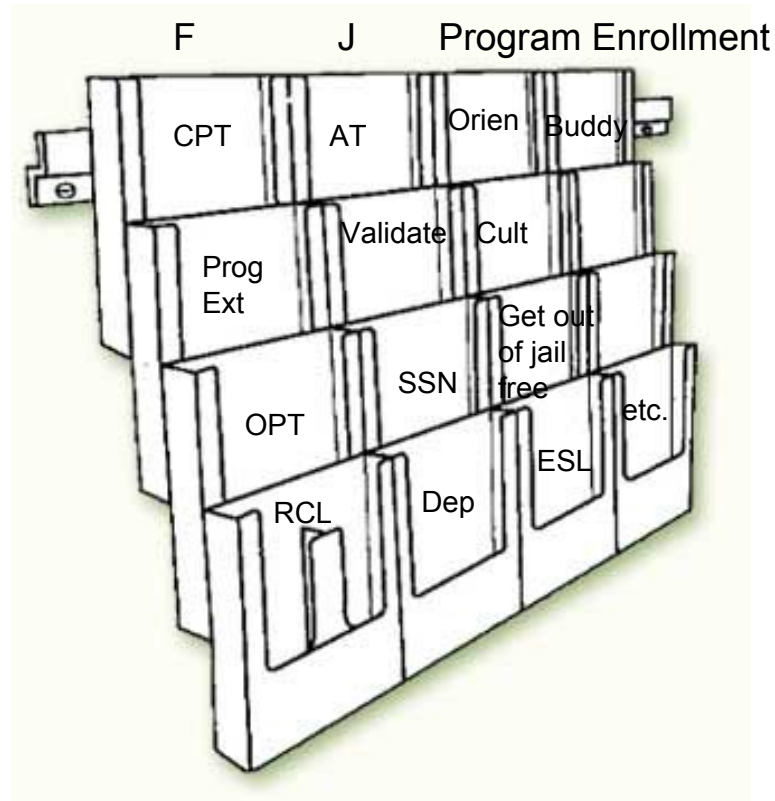

What is a Program Type?

- A top-level classification of programs
- All programs and process elements on your site will have a single 'program type' selected
- There are many aspects of the application process and features that are available to applicants and programs that are determined by the characteristics of the program type.
